Terms of use

By accessing or using PLUS ES website, you agree to the terms of use set out below. The terms of use include our legal disclaimers, our privacy policy and any other terms and conditions of use posted from time to time on the website.

PLUS ES may change the terms of use of this website at any time without notice. By continuing to use the site, you accept the terms of use current at the time you access and use it.

Liability

PLUS ES makes no representations and gives no warranties about the contents of this website. We are not responsible to you or anyone else for any loss suffered in connection with use of the website or any of the content it contains. PLUS ES excludes, to the maximum extent permitted by law:

Any liability which may arise as a result of use of this website, including (but not limited to) the transmission of any computer virus; and any liability which may arise in connection with the contents of the website or the information on it.

PLUS ES will not be liable for any indirect or consequential loss arising out of the use of the website, including loss of profits. Where liability cannot be excluded, any liability incurred by PLUS ES in relation to the use of this website or its contents is limited as provided by s68A of the Trade Practices Act 1974.

PLUS ES' intellectual property

Unless otherwise indicated, PLUS ES either owns the copyright in the contents of this website or is licensed to use it. You may print out any of the contents of this website for your personal use. None of the contents of this website or any part in it may be reproduced on any other Internet website except with the express written permission of PLUS ES.
